TOMORROW'S ACHIEVERS TODAY

Wednesday 26 April 2017 – Volume 14

Quote of the Week

"Only as high as I reach can I grow. Only as far as I seek can I go. Only as deep as I look can I see.
Only as much as I dream can I be."

~ Karen Ravn

From the Headmaster

MR P L McAVOY

I have been thinking for some time about what makes a good team. What is the secret ingredient that makes a team work effectively and grow, through adversity to develop the kind of strength needed to experience success. I am not yet, despite my experience of many teams, able to pinpoint any one magical requirement which I could say defines a 'good team' in this way. However, what I have learnt is that at the heart of a team are the people who make it and it is this, for me, which seems the most sensible place to start.

Schools are interesting places to work. By their very nature each one is different and each one has creative individuals who strive to do their very best for the students they teach. A school is a place of innovative thinking. With that comes a wide range of differing opinions and unique personalities. Human nature is such that we will not always agree or work well with all those we meet in life. It does not however mean that we cannot learn from all those we interact with. Even some of our darkest experiences bring lessons and those we find most challenging to work with can often bring us the most personal and professional growth.

With that in mind then, and as I have always been very aware that we are always on a learning journey ourselves, each new lesson and experience brings with it an opportunity to develop our own vision and values. What we must remember is to value our Northwood team most.

"There is no system in the world or any school in the country that is better than its teachers. Teachers are the lifeblood of the success of schools." Sir Ken Robinson.

In the very short space of time that makes up a term or teaching year even, it is important to ensure that our team makes an impact. To ensure that impact is noticeable, it is important to get to know the individuals who make it up. We encourage individuality amongst our students and we often find that many of their talents are hidden. The same can be seen in the adults we (you and I, as well as your sons) work with. If you take a few minutes to stop and think about the individuals on your son's teaching team, you will begin to see how they all differ. A team will not be effective if it has only one 'type' of individual on it. For this reason the differences are something which should be celebrated and openly acknowledged. Each team member needs to feel valued for who they are and what strengths they bring to the team. It is about bringing those different strengths together under the same ethos to achieve holistic learning for your son that is important. Through utilising the strengths of each team member, team members begin to work together genuinely recognising that collaboration gets better results.

I repeatedly say to prospective Northwood boys and parents that we are about people. We can all learn from each other through collaboration, continuing professional dialogue and valuing the contribution that each of us makes. Mother Theresa could not have put it better when she said, "I can do things you cannot, you can do things I cannot; together we can do great things."

Confidence within a team is key. Setting the tone for the environment within which you work I think can have dramatic effects for the good or bad. It needs to be an environment in which questions can be asked and opinions discussed. I trust that you have made good use of the Parents Evenings over the last week to set the tone for the rest of this term and into the June examinations.

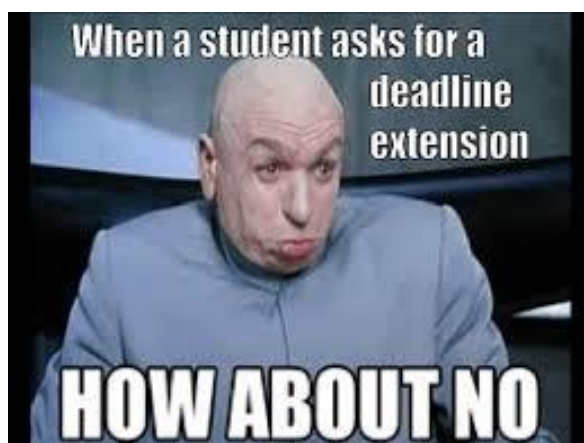

From the Headmaster

Our current teaching team is an amazing one. We are all different. We sometimes have different ideas and we have different strategies. We have certain things in common however, in particular our love of learning and the passion with which we are determined to do our best for the boys we teach. It is not about being the best in the team. It is about being the best for the team.

Does life ever run smoothly in a team? I would say yes it can. Not always and without a doubt we can all find ourselves treading through murky waters on occasion but this is part of life. It has been my experience that with the right commitment and effort to the team and the individuals who make up the team, begin to enjoy what they have built. They enjoy being part of the excellent Northwood community they are contributing to on a daily basis and when hurdles come their way, they jump them. Together.

I would say to all involved in the school above anything else, if you want to build a strong, effective and happy team: be part of it. Get stuck in and work as everyone around you does. Give it your all. We are all in this for one reason: the children. There is no better motivation than being part of a team where everyone pitches in and works together to make a contribution. We must all lead by example and our actions speak louder than our words. Setting a positive approach to tackling a challenge – academic primarily as a gateway to others - and not being afraid to be facing that challenge with your team is crucial. Challenges are there for a reason - they help us to see how much we thought we could not achieve. The stronger the team the greater the achievement. I look forward to seeing many outstanding achievements in and out of the classroom when we return from the long weekend!

I will leave you with one of my favourite quotes. It sums up what I try to make my own approach every day to bringing my team together and making them effective and strong. It is by Henry Ford who said on teamwork, "Coming together is a beginning; keeping together is a process; working together is success."

The Programme of Assessment and Exam Timetable have been in the wild for some time now...so please expect teachers to word towards them! I strongly recommend that at least one day is spent over the weekend getting ready for what is coming your way...

Please be aware of the two compulsory attendance events this term. All boys are required to attend fixtures against Parktown on Saturday 20 May, and of course on Old Boys Day versus Michaelhouse on Saturday 3 June. More details will be published closer to the time.

NORTHWOOD SCHOOL MAGAZINE ADVERTISING OPTIONS

Northwood's 2016 annual magazine will be a high quality, full colour publication which will offer a reflective look at the year past in terms of academic and sporting achievements, as well as cultural and social events detailing school life. Our school magazines will also be available as an E-book on our website.

By advertising your company in our magazine you will reach the following:

- Students, staff, parents and extended family and friends of Northwood.
- Grade 6 and 7 boys and their families from surrounding primary schools in Durban North.
- Local community centres, libraries and waiting rooms in the area.

The magazine is used extensively as a marketing tool for our school and will be on display at parent open evenings, as well as prospective parent events at various educational venues.

Boarding News

From the Director of Boarding: Mr L. Bragin

It is with pride that I would like to congratulate two of our Bruyns House Old Boys on their achievements at the European Rugby Championships that took place during the Easter holidays.

The following boys represented the Dutch National Team: Victor Huurman (2016 – Head Boarder) was a stalwart in the forwards; David Weersma (2014) was the top points scorer at the tournament and was chosen for the Tournament XV; David's younger brother, Robin Weersma, who is currently the Head Boarder and deputy Head Prefect of the school as well as Tyren Kroos (Grade 11) represented the u18 division at the same tournament and were described as 'outstanding' by the media.

Congratulations to these Bruyns brothers and to all others who took part in festivals and competitions alike.

Please take note in advance that the boarding houses will be closed for the October break. We are unable to accommodate any boys for that period of time.

Sport & Culture

From the Head of Extramurals

Mr G. Le Roux gleroux@nwood.co.za
Deputy Headmaster – Extramurals

Thank you very much to all the boys that went up to Jeppe this past weekend. It is never easy after long hours of travel to get up and perform the following day but I think our boys showed heart and determination throughout the fixture. Well done to our Tennis, Chess and MindSports (DOTA) teams who all beat Jeppe this past weekend. Our Squash team drew to Jeppe on the day. I think the overall experience is always a great one and I have heard some great stories about the families that were hosting on Friday evening. This is a long standing fixture, and this weekend was our 48th consecutive fixture against Jeppe which shows the nature of the relationship and long standing tradition of the fixture. Thank you very much to our parents for supporting this fixture.

With Maritzburg College visiting us today for our rugby and hockey fixtures, it allows for both first team hockey and rugby to be played under lights. This creates a whole new atmosphere and who knows what may happen in the dark. Good luck to all boys involved.

Enjoy the long weekend I hope our boys return feeling refreshed after a frantic start to Term 2.
